

Crowds are gathering to see our lineup of conference speakers!

NOTE: The first four sessions will be offered concurrently and then they will be followed by our visiting World Champion of Public Speaking in plenary session.

You Too Can Be President's Distinguished – Here's How.

Distinguished Toastmaster, Cynthia Miller is a certified professional facilitator and consultant with Purposeful Solutions, LLC. She serves as the TLI Dean for Leadership Skills Development in District 27 and as club president for the 3P Evaluators. Cynthia will moderate a panel discussion on the lessons we all can learn from the District's habitual over-achievers. Who are these over-achievers? They are the club presidents and vice-presidents from our PRESIDENTS DISTINGUISHED clubs. If you have a question for this august panel, e-mail the moderator at "cmfacilt8r@aol.com."

If You're Not Careful . . . You'll Miss it!

Toastmaster Frank Little retired from the United States Navy. Currently he works as a private administrative management consultant. He is the author of four books of LITTLE NOTES containing maxims and tips on leadership, motivation, and inspiration. This LITTLE presentation will leave you with thought provoking and valuable insight into understanding those things that causes you to move and gyrate, stressfully contemplate, rapidly fight or flight, or slowly slip and sink into immobility. It will address how the complex can be so basic . . . and show how you can control it.

Apply Table Topic Skills to Improve Your Business Communication

Advanced Communicator and Advanced Leader Bronze, Mo Hamilton, is also the deputy Public Relations Officer for District 27. In this capacity she serves and the Executive Producer of the public cable access television show: "Mastering Business Communication." Participate in Mo's seminar and learn how to harness the power of impromptu speaking and discover your stage presence so as to advance your career through the skills you learn in Toastmasters.

Professor Finn's TOP Ten Tips for Improving Your Next Speech
